

WINSTON

Privacy Policy

Effective Date: April 2026 | Last Updated: April 2026

1. Introduction

Welcome to Winston. We are committed to protecting your privacy and being completely transparent about how we handle your personal information. This Privacy Policy explains what data Winston collects, why we collect it, how we use it, and your rights regarding your information.

Winston is a personal AI companion designed to make your daily life more organized, connected, and meaningful. To do this well, Winston needs to know a lot about you. We take that responsibility seriously.

By using Winston, you agree to the practices described in this Privacy Policy. If you do not agree, please do not use Winston.

2. Who We Are

Winston is an independent product developed by David Blakelock, based in Dallas, Texas. Winston is not affiliated with Amazon, Apple, Google, or any other major technology company.

Contact us at any time with privacy questions or concerns:

- Email: davidblakelock01@gmail.com
- Address: Dallas, Texas

3. What Information We Collect

Winston collects information in two ways: information you provide directly, and information we access through connected services with your permission.

3.1 Information You Provide Directly

- Your name and the name you choose for your companion
- Your city and home address for navigation and weather purposes
- Names, relationships, and locations of family members and important people
- Your daily routines, schedule preferences, and wake time
- Health information you choose to share, including medications and appointments
- Important places such as doctor offices, gym locations, and favorite restaurants
- Personal interests including shows, sports teams, music, and hobbies
- Stories and memories you capture for your family
- Journal entries you choose to record
- Reminders, shopping lists, and to-do items

- Bill payment dates and financial obligation reminders
- Birthday and anniversary dates for important people

3.2 Information We Access Through Connected Services

With your explicit permission, Winston may access the following through secure OAuth authentication:

- Gmail: We read your emails to provide morning summaries and detect potential scams. We do not store email content permanently.
- Google Calendar: We read and write calendar events to manage your schedule and provide departure alerts.
- Google Contacts: With your permission, we import specific contact details you request to populate your Winston profile.
- Location: We use your location for weather data and navigation. We do not track your location continuously.

3.3 Automatically Collected Information

- Voice input: Your voice is transcribed using ElevenLabs speech-to-text. Audio recordings are not stored permanently.
- Usage patterns: Basic anonymous information about how frequently you use Winston to improve the product.
- Device information: Browser type and device type for compatibility purposes.

4. How We Use Your Information

We use your information exclusively to provide and improve Winston's services. We do not sell your data. We do not use your data for advertising. Every piece of information we collect serves one purpose: making Winston more helpful to you.

- Deliver personalized morning briefings tailored to your life and interests
- Provide weather information for your location and your family members' locations
- Summarize your emails and flag potentially suspicious messages
- Manage your calendar and provide proactive departure alerts
- Send timely reminders for medications, appointments, and bills
- Navigate you to saved places without requiring addresses each time
- Recommend restaurants, events, and activities matched to your preferences
- Capture and preserve your stories and memories for your family
- Track your daily mood and wellbeing to provide appropriate support
- Remember previous conversations to provide continuity and genuine companionship
- Improve Winston's features and fix problems

5. How We Share Your Information

We share your information only with the service providers necessary to operate Winston. We do not sell, rent, or share your personal information with advertisers, data brokers, or any third party for commercial purposes.

- Anthropic (Claude AI): Processes your conversations to generate Emma Peel's responses.
- ElevenLabs: Converts text to speech for Emma Peel's voice and transcribes your voice input.
- Google: Provides authentication, Gmail, Calendar, Contacts, Maps, and weather through their APIs.
- Supabase: Stores your Winston profile, conversation memory, reminders, stories, and personal data securely.
- Tomorrow.io: Provides weather data based on your location.
- TVmaze: Provides TV show tracking data. No personal information is shared with TVmaze.

We may disclose your information if required by law, court order, or to protect the safety of users or the public. We will notify you of such requests where legally permitted.

6. Data Storage and Security

Your Winston profile and all personal data is stored securely in Supabase, a secure cloud database provider. We implement industry-standard security measures including encrypted data transmission and secure access controls.

Voice recordings are processed in real time for transcription and are not stored permanently. Email content is summarized in real time and not stored independently.

While we implement strong security measures, no system is completely immune to security risks. We encourage you to contact us immediately if you suspect unauthorized access to your account.

7. Data Retention

We retain your personal information for as long as you maintain an active Winston account:

- Your profile information is retained until you delete your account
- Conversation memory is retained for a rolling seven day period by default
- Stories and journal entries are retained indefinitely until you choose to delete them
- Reminders and lists are retained until completed or deleted
- You can request deletion of specific data at any time by asking Emma Peel or contacting us directly

8. Your Rights and Choices

You have meaningful control over your information in Winston:

- Access: Ask Emma Peel to tell you what she knows about you at any time
- Correction: Update any information in your profile by telling Emma Peel or through settings
- Deletion: Delete specific information or your entire account and all associated data at any time
- Portability: Request an export of your story archive and journal entries at any time

- Disconnection: Revoke Winston's access to Gmail, Calendar, or Contacts at any time through your Google Account settings
- Opt out: You can choose not to connect any external service and use Winston's core features with manually provided information only

To exercise any of these rights, contact us at davidblakelock01@gmail.com or ask Emma Peel directly.

9. Health Information

Winston collects limited health information you voluntarily share, including medication names and timing, recurring medical appointments, and daily wellbeing check-ins. This information is used exclusively to provide helpful reminders and support.

Winston is not a medical device, healthcare provider, or mental health professional. Emma Peel is not a substitute for professional medical or psychological care. Always consult qualified healthcare professionals for medical advice, diagnosis, or treatment.

If you share information suggesting a medical emergency, Emma Peel will provide emergency service contact information and encourage you to seek immediate professional help.

10. Children's Privacy

Winston is not designed for or directed at individuals under the age of 13. We do not knowingly collect personal information from children under 13. If you believe we have inadvertently collected information from a child under 13, please contact us immediately at davidblakelock01@gmail.com.

11. California Privacy Rights

If you are a California resident, you have additional rights under the California Consumer Privacy Act (CCPA) including the right to know what personal information we collect, the right to delete your personal information, and the right to opt out of the sale of your personal information. Winston does not sell personal information. To exercise your CCPA rights, contact us at davidblakelock01@gmail.com.

12. Changes to This Privacy Policy

We may update this Privacy Policy from time to time. When we make significant changes, we will notify you through Winston or by email. Your continued use of Winston after changes are posted constitutes acceptance of the updated policy.
